Extreme Skiing Pioneer Dan Egan on NH Book Signing Tour

Local stores around New Hampshire are hosting Dan Egan this July to sign his and co-author Eric Wilbur's new book "Thirty Years in a White Haze."

Campton, New Hampshire, June 22, 2021— New Hampshire Local and Extreme Skiing Pioneer Dan Egan is touring the state to share his new book Thirty Years in a White Haze.

New England-born and raised, Dan tells a story that takes readers on adventures around the world while staying rooted in his past in connection to New Hampshire local towns and ski areas like Cannon Mountain, Tenney Mountain, Tuckerman's Ravine, Loon Mountain Resort, Bretton Woods Resort, Waterville Valley, and more. Dan recounts iconic moments like jumping out of the Cannon Mountain Tram for a 1994 Warren Miller film and the first National Championships of Exhibition Skiing with Wayne Wong at Waterville in 1971. Picked for the Boston Globe's 2021 Summer Reading List, Thirty Years in a White Haze has remained in the Top 10 Skiing books on Amazon for 4 weeks straight.

The book signings will be held at the following stores where Dan will answer questions from guests before signing individual copies. Skip the line and purchase a copy of the book ahead of time at <https://www.white-haze.com/>.

"From humble Massachusetts hills to the jagged peaks of the Alps, from the looniness of skiing the Berlin Wall to a near-death disaster on Russia's Mount Elbrus, from the rise of hotdogging to the heights of cliff-jumping, Dan Egan has been at forefront of the wild world of skiing. "White Haze" is a fascinating, rollicking, roller-coaster ride of a book, swinging from joy to heartbreak and back, with danger at every turn."

— MICHAEL FINKEL, Long-time ski journalist and New York Times best-selling author of The Stranger in the Woods.

About Daniel Egan

Dan Egan is a pioneer of extreme sports, world-renowned for his big mountain skiing on the international stage. He has appeared in more than a dozen Warren Miller ski films and is known for traveling to the most remote regions of the world to ski and chronicle the geopolitical landscape of the late 80s and 90s. In 2001, Powder Magazine named Dan Egan one of the most influential skiers of our time. He was inducted into the US Skiing & Snowboarding Hall of Fame in 2016.
